J. Marie Bailey Director of Theatre

J. Marie Bailey is the Director of the Theatre Arts program here at Winter Park High School. She is a veteran teacher of 16 years; although, this is her fourth year here at Winter Park. Ms. J, as the students call her, graduated with a B.A. in Dramaturgy and Performance from the University of Arizona and received an M.A. in Leadership from George Fox University. Born and raised in the Chicagoland area, Ms. J. developed the love of theatre while performing in theme parks and Chicago's Second City.

She has performed professionally: six tours with Missoula Children's Theatre, out of Montana, and two tours with American Family Theatre out of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. After performing, she began to build a family with her loving husband Jason Bailey and her three boys Aydan, Devyn, and Kiryan.

Throughout her teaching career, Ms. J. has been nominated for Teacher of the Year in Oregon and for Arts Teacher of the Year three times here in Florida. Since the profession of teaching is not financially sufficient to provide for her family, J. Marie also works a second job in the gig economy as a director and performer in the greater Orlando Community.

Ms. J. would like to personally thank the performing arts department and administration for supporting her crazy ideas and giving her the space to continue to build a strong program for Winter Park. The future is the responsibility of the now, therefore Ms. J believes that by the cultivation of her students in the theatre arts, students will develop the skill set to navigate emotionally, socially, and intellectually through the world. "And one must...Never, Never, Never Quit." -Winston Churchill.

Sydney Hughes Associate Director of Theatre

Sydney Marie Hughes is an award-winning vocalist and actor, and a graduate of the esteemed Oklahoma City University with a degree in Musical Theatre. She has been involved in numerous theatre and opera productions (both backstage and onstage) over the past 15 years.

She is an accomplished artist and designer, with work featured all over the country, including a feature in Cosmopolitan Magazine. Ms. Hughes is a proud alumni of YoungArts, KY Governor's School for the Arts, and the American Theatre Wing's SBNYC. Ms. Hughes stays busy during her after-school hours as a private vocal and piano teacher, entertainment cast member at Disney, and voice actress.

She would like to thank her friends and family, and the WPHS Performing Arts Department, for their support.

On behalf of the Winter Park High School Theatre Boosters, I would like to welcome you! Thank you for supporting our Theatre Department and the performing arts by choosing to experience this live theatre performance with us today.

We are incredibly thankful to our Directors, costume designers, set decorators, makeup artists and tech crew for all of the time that they have given in support of our talented performers.

If you would like to assist our Booster team for future events, please let me know. Your involvement in our theatre community is absolutely vital. Everyone helping out in big and small ways will make this year a success!

Now...enjoy the show!

With gratitude,
Kara McKinney

Leah and Gianna

We enjoyed your first theatre season and look forward to this year's shows.

Your enthusiasm and hard work are inspirational. We love watching you growing and challenging yourselves. Always stay positive, keep focused on your values and goals, and never shy away from hard work. There are no limits on what you can accomplish.

"There's a million things I haven't done but just you wait. Just you wait."
