Theatre Etiquette

Stay and Show Your Appreciation!

Skipping once the show has started, now that wouldn't make it the best day ever.*

Making a mad dash for the door is quite rude. The performers on stage can see you along with everyone else. So, please wait until the house lights go up to leave.

Hearing a Pin Drop

We are delighted if the performance is the “talk of the school”, but please wait until intermission or final curtain to engage in lengthy conversations. In addition, everyone will hear the sound of a crumpling wrapper from a piece of candy, so please wait until you exit the theater to eat.

We Were Here, Where Were You?

Arriving late to the theatre is not considered being “fashionably late”.

After the performance has begun, a latecomer will be asked to wait for a suitable moment before entering and taking a seat. This reminder also applies at intermission.

Lovely to Look at...and Preserve!

Help us conserve the condition of our auditorium by finishing all beverages and snacks before entering the theater. Please remember to dispose of any trash in the lobby.

The Great Escape!

Just as you have become one with the performers, your neighbor suddenly becomes an alarm clock!

Watches, cellphones, and any other alarms, are distracting. Please be considerate to those seated around you by switching them off.

Director's Note

Welcome to Bikini Bottom! At first glance, SpongeBob the Musical is bright, colorful, and full of humor, but at its core, it tells a deeper story about kindness, resilience, and the power of community. The Hagerty Theatre Department strives to create and cultivate a culture of kindness. This story is also a look at how troubled and polluted the oceans are. In a world facing uncertainty, the characters come together not through force, but through love and compassion, showing us that even in the most trying times, kindness will always triumph. Also as a company we worked to do our part to help clean the environment and make the world better for generations to come.

Our students have embraced this message wholeheartedly, bringing it to life with every song, every dance, and every moment on stage. This show has been an enormous technical undertaking. From creating the dynamic underwater world to executing complex lighting, sound, and scenic designs, it's been a journey of imagination and collaboration. None of it would have been possible without the incredible dedication of our production team, the tireless work of our student crews and our endless support from parent volunteers.

We hope you enjoy our take on SpongeBob the Musical and leave tonight inspired by its message: that no matter how big the challenge, we can face it with courage, creativity, and—above all—kindness.

Thank you for being a part of this adventure and sharing your time with us.

Jamaal K. Solomon
