A Note From Your Director...

Hello and welcome to "It's A Wonderful Life". Our holiday recital was the first recital I produced when I first took over Broadway Dance Arts in 2021. The show title "It's A Wonderful Life" is a declaration over my life and my students lives. In life we may face trials, but we will have a wonderful life. We will overcome, press forward, and dance in the storm.

A storm of loss hit my life early on – losing my brother Benjamin Newman when I was 9 years old and then losing my late husband Justin Tubach when I was 17 weeks pregnant with our first child in my twenties. In these storms I wondered and pondered, would life ever be wonderful again? At the time, I didn't think so but praise the Lord it is! I declared that I would have a wonderful life, and I DO!!!! I share this to be a positive example of what God can do.

The studio is such a blessing to my heart. My dancers are growing and thriving, learning and shining. My hope is that through your life, your loss, you will continue to declare "What A Wonderful Life" and to dance through the storm.

Dancers have a beautiful show, shine bright and do your best. We are all here to support you and to enjoy this moment in your wonderful life!

Thank you & Happy Holidays,

Miss. Jasmine

Dedication

We cannot believe this is your last Christmas show! It has been the greatest adventure of our lives being your mom, dad & little brother. Watching you on stage, living your dreams, on the cusp of adulthood is so very bittersweet. Sad because we have thoroughly enjoyed your dance journey & being a witness to your artistry & we don't want it to end. And sweet because you make us so very proud in everything you do. No matter what chapter comes next, we love you so very much & could not be prouder of the young woman, dancer, & artist you have become.

Merde to our little Sugar Plum!

We love you!
Love, Mama, Dad, Bry, Jack & Lulu
