Director's Note

Welcome to our production of Shrek the Musical! As you take your seats and prepare to embark on this fun-filled journey with us, I want to take a moment to share with you the heartwarming message that lies at the core of this beloved story.

At first glance, Shrek may appear to be a children's story, filled with whimsical characters and fantastical adventures. However, as we delve deeper into the layers of this tale, we uncover a powerful message that resonates with audiences of all ages: the importance of self-acceptance and celebrating our differences.

Throughout the musical, we encounter a diverse cast of characters, each with their own insecurities and struggles. From Fiona's unconventional secret to Donkey's desire for companionship, each character learns to embrace their individuality, ultimately finding acceptance and belonging in each other's company. Our green ogre hero, Shrek, embodies this message as he learns to love himself for who he truly is, flaws and all.

As you witness our talented cast bring these characters to life on stage, I invite you to reflect on the importance of embracing your own uniqueness. So sit back, relax, and prepare to be enchanted by the magic of Shrek the Musical. We hope you enjoy our play as much as we have enjoyed making it!

Theatrically Yours,
Ms. Carolina Ordonez
