Christina Sasloglou

Ms. Sasloglou has been the Upper School Dance Director for four years. Born and raised in Miami, she has trained in over nine genres of dance since the age of three. Ms. Sasloglou graduated from the top Dance Magnet Schools in Miami, competitively danced, and graduated from Patricia Penenori Dance Center, and received a Bachelors Degree in Education from FIU, Summa Cum Laude. Combining her love for the arts and education, Ms.Sasloglou continues to share her passion with young dancers. Ms.Sasloglou's classes focus on dance history, culture, vocabulary, technique, performance quality, artistry, and kinesiology.

"My goal as a dance teacher is to inspire others to be the best versions of themselves using the art form of dance"
