Master of Ceremony

Robert Giguere

Magnet Coordinator
Dr. Phillips TV-Film Magnet

Bob Giguere is an award-winning producer with over 43 years of television experience, including documentary and current events programming. His credits include the nationally distributed programs The National Parent Quiz, Releasing Dolphins, The Rock and Treating Addiction for PBS and Deep Diving for National Geographic Explorer. His environmental film resume includes Nature in Danger, Releasing Dolphins, Wekiva: Legacy or Loss and Hidden Secrets of Florida Springs for PBS and In Search of Xanadu and Conch Cowboys for BBG Productions and the Florida Channel. Bob's camera work has been seen on PBS, National Geographic, The Discovery Channel, Women's Entertainment & Starz TV.

Master of Ceremony

Robert Giguere

Bob has won numerous Emmy and Telly awards for his social and environmental documentary work. His work has been honored with the receipt of 4 Emmy Awards, 5 National Telly Awards, 4 National Communicator Awards, an Aurora Best of Show Award and numerous news, education and public relations awards in the state of Maine and Florida.

Bob is also an avid outdoorsman, kayaker and scuba diver. He has over 40 years of diving experience and holds advanced open water and cave diving certifications from the YMCA, NAUI, NOAA, NSS and NACD. His diving experiences are varied and include dives in the cold depths of the Gulf of Maine, the cave systems of Florida, Mexico and Bermuda and the warm waters of the Caribbean Sea. He was the principal Underwater and Topside Videographer for a saturation dive mission in Key Largo, FL for National Geographic that featured Sylvia Earl. In addition he and his camera have made several forays into Florida's caves, springs and rivers, including a Discovery Channel Online expedition about the St. John's River.

Educated at the University of Maine, Bob has made Central Florida his home for the past 33 years. He is the founder of both bGenesis, llc and Equinox Documentaries, Inc. He has taught as an adjunct Instructor for the University of Maine, the University of Central Florida, Rollins College, Valencia College, the Dave School and the Metaverse University.

Judges

Peyton Haines

Peyton Haines is an alumni of Dr. Phillips High School and the TV/Film Magnet program. During her time at DPHS, she served as Director of the 2019 Film Festival, lead anchor for WDOC, and got opportunities as a sideline reporter for Spectrum Sports and at the 2019 ProBowl. Peyton has recently graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in News Media and Sports Broadcasting. She is now a producer and replay operator of live sports broadcasts on ESPN and SEC Network.

Judges

Brian-Marc Whittaker

Digital Media Professor at Valencia College
Mr. Whittaker specializes in editing and post-production and has edited streaming series and nationally-aired packages. Mr. Whittaker is a Digital Media Professor at Valencia College and has MFA training in Animation from the Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD). His undergrad degree is from UCF.

Judges

Dale Metz

KILL THE CAMERAS

Dale Metz has been a photo and film enthusiast for years though he began a more formal study of photography in 1998. In early 2010, upon retiring from a career in the fire/EMS service, he developed a passion for film-making. The ability to use knowledge learned as a still photographer when creating a story through film opened a new dimension of expression. He enjoys collaboration, project development and working with actors and crew.

Born and raised in Vero Beach, Florida, he received a Bachelor degree from Florida State and has studied photography through Seminole State College and various workshops. His professional photographic experience includes wedding, portrait, fine art and commercial work. He has produced product advertisements and composite work for promotional publications. His short films have screened at festivals around the globe and have received numerous awards and recognition.

Judges

Dorie Cohn

Dorie Cohn currently works at Southwest Middle School as a media clerk running the WSLN-TV studio. The Sea Lion News is a daily live show broadcast to the students of Southwest. Features include student council events, sports, and club updates. Students produce commercials and public service announcements spotlighting community events, notable figures in history, current books and social media trends. Students get hands-on experience in all aspects of television production.

Special Thanks

Special Thanks

On behalf of Dr. Phillips High School Film Festival, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the volunteer parents for making this annual event a success. This annual showcase of creativity and talent is a highlight event for our students. It wouldn't be possible without the assistance of countless people, preparing ahead of the event, during, and working after. Most of all, want to give thanks to Mr. Giguere for his dedication to all the students and their futures. Good luck to all the nominees and outgoing seniors. Never less than the best!

DR. PHILLIPS HIGH SCHOOL

We would also like to thank our administration, Principal Jackie Ramsey, Assistant Principal Vanessa Morrow, and the entire DP staff for their outstanding support of our program. Special thanks to Nicole Nasrallah, VPA Magnet Coordinator, for direction and support.

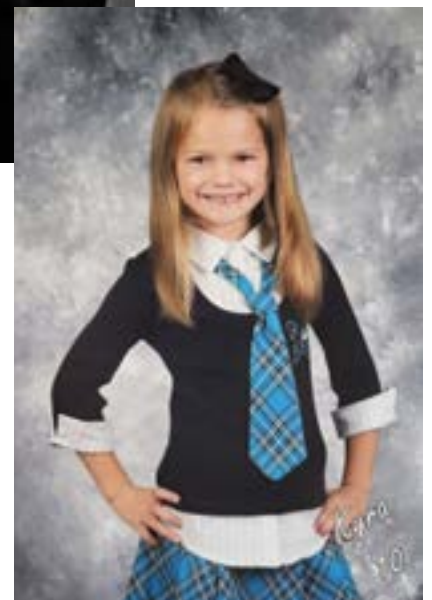

We are so proud of your accomplishments over the past 4 years and are excited to watch your passion become your career.
Congratulations Andrew!

Love Mom, Matt, Will and Amanda
