About your speaker:

Ms. Xavia Fredrick is a resilient and purpose-driven mother of four, construction professional, and advocate for personal and community growth through faith, discipline, and perseverance. A graduate of Florida A&M University with a background in Business Administration, she has built a career grounded in leadership, service, and impact.

With experience in both the nonprofit and construction industries, Ms. Fredrick is known for her integrity, strong work ethic, and compassionate leadership. Her journey reflects resilience, faith, and a commitment to creating opportunities for her family and uplifting others along the way. Passionate about encouraging women and parents to grow beyond obstacles, she strives to inspire others to pursue purpose, excellence, and service while empowering her children to build lives greater than the circumstances they came from.

An Evans alumna, C/O 2003, Ms. Fredrick was Sophomore Jr. Princess, Ms. Helen of Troy (homecoming Queen), section leader in the band as well as Drum Major her senior year. She was also a member of the National Honor Society and vice president of SGA. She has come to give back her service and serves as our PTSA President-and is STILL making a difference.
