THEATRE ETTIQUETTE

STAY AND SHOW YOUR APPRECIATION!

Skipping once the show has started isn't taken too well by the gods.

Making a mad dash for the door is quite rude. The performers on stage can see you along with everyone else. So, please wait until the house lights go up to leave.

HEARING A PIN DROP

We are delighted if the performance is the talk of the town, but please wait until intermission or final curtain to engage in lengthy conversations. In addition, everyone will hear the sound of a crumpling wrapper from a piece of candy, so please wait until you exit the theater to eat.

WE WERE HERE, WHERE WERE YOU?

Arriving late to the theatre is not considered being "fashionably late".

After the performance has begun, a latecomer will be asked to wait for a suitable moment before entering and taking a seat. This reminder also applies at intermission.

LOVELY TO LOOK AT...AND PRESERVE!

Help us conserve the condition of our auditorium by finishing all beverages and snacks before entering the theater. Please remember to dispose of any trash in the lobby.

THE GREAT ESCAPE!

Just as you have become one with the performers, your neighbor becomes an alarm clock!

Watches, cellphones, and any other alarms are distracting. Please be considerate to those seated around you by switching them off.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Welcome to our production of The Lightning Thief! This story is about so much more than mythical gods and legendary heroes—it's a celebration of the everyday hero in all of us. In this world, heroes aren't defined by what they look like or where they come from; they're defined by their courage, kindness, and the way they stand up for others.

In our version of The Lightning Thief, we are proud to show that heroes can come in all shapes, sizes, and backgrounds. Just like Percy, who discovers his strength through unexpected challenges, each of us has the power to be heroic in our own way.

In the Hagerty Theatre Department, we strive to create and cultivate a culture of kindness, inclusivity, and mutual respect. This production is a reflection of that. Our cast and crew have worked together as a team, lifting one another up through challenges, supporting each other's growth, and demonstrating that true heroism is about compassion and collaboration.

Thank you for joining us on this adventure. We hope it inspires you to find the hero within yourself and reminds you that the world needs all kinds of heroes—heroes like you.
