Store Etiquette

Stay and Show Your Appreciation!

Making a mad dash for the door is not a sound we'd like to hear while selling. The performers on stage can see you along with everyone else. So, please wait until the house lights go up to leave.

Hearing a Pin Drop

We are delighted if the performance is the "talk of the shop", but please wait until intermission or final curtain to engage in lengthy conversations. In addition, it's against store policy to eat in the building, so please refrain from snacking during the performance.

We Were Here, Where Were You?

Arriving late to the theatre is not considered being "fashionably late".

After the performance has begun, a latecomer will be asked to wait for a suitable moment before entering and taking a seat. This reminder also applies at intermission.

Lovely to Look at...and Preserve!

Help us conserve the condition of our auditorium by finishing all beverages and snacks before entering the theater. Please remember to dispose of any trash in the lobby.

The Great Escape!

Just as you have become one with the performers, your neighbor suddenly becomes an alarm clock!

Watches, cellphones, and any other alarms, are distracting. Please be considerate to those seated around you by switching them off.

Director's Note

Good Morning, good day and welcome to Hagerty High School's Purebred Productions presentation of She Loves Me.

This enchanting story has been called one of the most charming musicals ever written — and from the very first rehearsal, our cast, crew, leadership team, and volunteers have embraced that spirit wholeheartedly. What makes this production shine, though, isn't just the dialogue or the score. It's the kindness, hard work, and unshakable dedication of these incredible humans who brought it to life. In the true spirit of the Hagerty Theatre Department, they create and cultivate a culture of kindness.

Every element you see tonight — from the lights in the shop counters to the bustling choreography of a café on a December evening — has been built with care and collaboration. Our student leaders have balanced artistic vision with compassion, our crew has poured long hours into every detail, and our performers have supported one another through every note and step. Their generosity of spirit is the heartbeat of this show.

Our scenic inspiration draws from the lush yet intimate aesthetic of the classic Broadway revivals of She Loves Me — jewel-toned storefronts, delicate period details, and the feeling of being nestled inside a snow globe of timeless romance. That warmth and wonder became the world we built together — a space where laughter, love, and friendship bloom.

It has been a joy to watch these young artists transform hard work into magic. I am endlessly proud of the way they've shown up for each other — and for you.

Thank you for supporting educational theatre, and thank you for letting us share this love letter of a musical with you.

Because more than anything... they love what they do. And it shows.

Senior year and you're running the show (well... at least the shop) as Mr. Maraczek in She Loves Me! You've nailed the "distinguished boss" vibe while still keeping us laughing—basically, you're the perfect combination of classy and sassy.

You've worked hard, charmed the audience, and proven that retirement age is no match for high school theater magic. Break a leg, Mr. Maraczek—just not the store's merchandise.
