Theatre Etiquette

Stay and Show Your Appreciation!

Skipping once the show has started? Now, that's a drag.

Making a mad dash for the door is quite rude. The performers on stage can see you along with everyone else. So, please wait until the house lights go up to leave.

Hearing a Pin Drop

We are delighted if the performance is the “talk of the school”, but please wait until intermission or final curtain to engage in lengthy conversations. In addition, everyone will hear the sound of a crumpling wrapper from a piece of candy, so please wait until you exit the theater to eat.

We Were Here, Where Were You?

Arriving late to the theatre is not considered being “fashionably late”.

After the performance has begun, a latecomer will be asked to wait for a suitable moment before entering and taking a seat.

This reminder also applies at intermission.

Lovely to Look at...and Preserve!

Help us conserve the condition of our auditorium by finishing all beverages and snacks before entering the theater. Please remember to dispose of any trash in the lobby.

The Great Escape!

Just as you have become one with the performers, your neighbor suddenly becomes an alarm clock!

Watches, cellphones, and any other alarms, are distracting.

Please be considerate to those seated around you by switching them off.

Director's Note

Welcome to Hagerty High School's production of "The Drowsy Chaperone"!

As we embark on this journey into the whimsical world of musical theater, I am overjoyed to invite you to join us for an evening of laughter, romance, and pure entertainment. "The Drowsy Chaperone" is a delightful homage to the golden age of musicals, filled with toe-tapping tunes, colorful characters, and plenty of comedic twists and turns.

There are some that say The Drowsy Chaperone is the "perfect musical". I consider it a love letter to musical theater and to the Theater Department. A story that takes you away from whatever may be troubling you or if you're feeling "blue".

In bringing this beloved musical to life on our stage, our talented cast and crew have poured their hearts and souls into every moment, embracing the charm and energy of the Jazz Age. From the rip-roaring musical numbers to the hilarious hijinks of our characters, each scene is infused with the pure joy.

As you watch these students shine onstage, I encourage you to let yourself be transported to a world where anything is possible, where dreams take flight, and where laughter is the best medicine. "The Drowsy Chaperone" is a celebration of the magic of theater, and we are thrilled to share that magic with you tonight.

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to our dedicated cast, crew, production team and all of our volunteers for their hard work and dedication in bringing this production to life. I also want to express my gratitude to our administration and school community for their unwavering support of the arts.

So sit back, relax, and enjoy the show! Thank you for joining us on this theatrical adventure, and may "The Drowsy Chaperone" leave you with a smile on your face and a song in your heart.

Crew Information

Set

When you see the scenery in the show, what brings you into the shows atmosphere, that's thanks to the set crew! The Set Crew builds all of the stage decorations that you see, like different rooms, the fridge, etc.! The crew's immense talent helps bring together the show.

Publicity

You might be asking, "what is Publicity?" The Publicity crew is responsible for putting together all the promotional things you see, like this Playbill, the lobby decorations, student shirts, tickets, posters, cups—you name it!

Everyone on this crew is extremely talented and deserve recognition, so if you see any of the posters around, shirts the crew is wearing for the show, or you buy a cup; it was a student who made it!

Props

The Props crew is responsible for the different stage props you see throughout the show. When there's things characters are holding, it's considered a prop! The talented crew often hand-makes items as well, so when you see props on stage, it was done by the students on this crew!

Crew Information

Lights and Sound

Looking at the stage, you'll see all kinds of colors. From one spectrum of the rainbow to the next, lights bring together a harmony for the show. Sound is arguably one of the most important parts of a musical! The Lights and Sounds crew puts this together and programs what you see on stage in the sound booth. During the show, take a quick peek at the back booth to see some of the magic happen!

Costumes

It'd look pretty out of place if everyone was wearing modern clothes in the musical, right? That's where costumes come in. The Costumes crew makes sure all the outfits that you see the cast wear are appropriate for the time and setting of the piece. So those costumes on stage were all put together by the students on this crew!

Thank you for all the continuous support to the behind-the-scenes people! They all help the musical come to life, and without them, it wouldn't exist!
