Theatre Etiquette

Stay and Show Your Appreciation!

Skipping once the show has started? Now, that's a drag.

Making a mad dash for the door is quite rude. The performers on stage can see you along with everyone else. So, please wait until the house lights go up to leave.

Hearing a Pin Drop

We are delighted if the performance is the “talk of the school”, but please wait until intermission or final curtain to engage in lengthy conversations. In addition, everyone will hear the sound of a crumpling wrapper from a piece of candy, so please wait until you exit the theater to eat.

We Were Here, Where Were You?

Arriving late to the theatre is not considered being “fashionably late”.

After the performance has begun, a latecomer will be asked to wait for a suitable moment before entering and taking a seat.

This reminder also applies at intermission.

Lovely to Look at...and Preserve!

Help us conserve the condition of our auditorium by finishing all beverages and snacks before entering the theater. Please remember to dispose of any trash in the lobby.

The Great Escape!

Just as you have become one with the performers, your neighbor suddenly becomes an alarm clock!

Watches, cellphones, and any other alarms, are distracting.

Please be considerate to those seated around you by switching them off.

Through each performance selected by me, we aim to ignite the spark of wonder that resides within each of us, reminding us of the limitless possibilities that exist when we dare to dream. From the land of "The Mouse" to the world of Barbie, "Just My Imagination" promises to transport you to realms beyond your wildest dreams.

In the center, there is a white silhouette of a person running to the right. The title 'THE LIGHTNING THIEF' is written in large, bold, black letters across the middle, with 'THE PERCY JACKSON MUSICAL' in smaller black letters below it.
