A Note from the Director

Hello ladies and thank you for coming to our show (even if you were forced to be here). I have dreamt of directing a show since freshman year and I have no idea who let me do this, but I am by no means complaining. Our first rehearsal was December 10th, and since then the cast and crew have worked endlessly to put this show together. In four years with Troupe 1903, I can confidently say this is one of the best groups I have ever met. Through old English jargon and limited scene space, this team has managed to make a beautiful story come to light in an endearing and passionate way. The story of Pride and Prejudice had been told a million times over. Whether you read the book, watched the movie, or claim the tv series is better than all of it combined, you know this is a story about love. About family. About setting aside our differences. It's epic. It's sick. This show mogs other shows (I hope that's what the kids are saying these days). As always, thank you to my Mom and Dad for giving me a brain full of crazy ideas, and thank you to my best friends for keeping me sane. I cannot wait for you all to see this show and I hope it brings you as much joy as it has brought me these past few months.

-Laird Cristina Hill
